Monster description

One cold✓ rainy✓ night I start to hear scratching coming (from) from underneath my bed. My hands and body started to shake. I can smell (a) (sm) something disgusting coming from my cupboard. I look to the left and see a shadow run quickly past me, I look the other way, My mouth drops, I see a (p) big, humungus<sup>ou</sup> monster standing there. He has big<sup>green</sup> beady eyes, (and) a purple body with blue dots and spikes on his back. He told me his name very deeply, "My name is spikes." "I hope you are scared" "I will see you tomorrow night to haunt you," and he disappears back under my bed. I hope I never see him again.
