

Sentence Writing
Term 1 Week 6 (Homework)

Focus: Compound Sentences

Learning Goals:

- * I can write a compound sentence by joining two independent clauses with a conjunction
- * I can use basic punctuation including capital letters and full stops

A compound sentence is a sentence that contains two complete ideas that are related. They are usually connected by a conjunction (eg. for, and, nor, but, or, yet, so = FANBOYS).

Add a conjunction to the following simple sentences and add another simple sentence to make a compound sentence.

for and nor but or yet so

1. The student has won many prizes in the competition (insert conjunction then add a simple sentence).
2. I don't want to eat my dinner (insert conjunction then add a simple sentence).
3. He needed to go to the shops (insert conjunction then add a simple sentence).
4. Dogs make good pets (insert conjunction then add a simple sentence).
5. I have never travelled overseas (insert conjunction then add a simple sentence).
